CLUB SUPPER

The inaugural Club Supper and Awards Evening was a huge success with over 70 people attending. Thanks to Charlie McArdle, Annie Stirling, Kate Richards, Carol Reed and MaryAnn Preston for their help in making the evening possible.

Huge thanks to Sue Comoy-Richardson for the delicious beouf bourguignon and chicken tagine. The club is grateful for the enormous amount of effort Sue put in to this evening.

Leftovers were donated to Porchlight and managed to feed 16 homeless people.

The winners of the Club Player of the Year 2016 were:
Nick Wibberley and Tina Bird

TEAM NEWS

There are 6 weekends remaining of the winter season with Men's 70s 1, Men's 60s 1, Mixed 1 and Men's 6 all at the top of their leagues. The summer Kent league fixtures come out this week and matches will start in April. For the first time we have a Men's team in the National Premier League, an indoor league for elite clubs. For dates of their next home matches, see the attached write up.

DEFIBRILATORS

Although we hope the need will never arise, members should know that there are 2 defibrillators at Polo Farm. Locations are:

1. Main clubhouse – inside, on the wall beside the shop
2. Sports Hall – in the unlocked first aid cupboard to the right of the glazed entry door

SENIORS TOURNAMENT

There will be a Seniors Tournament at the club 24th-28th April. There will be no morning mix ins that week so why not consider entering instead? Entries via the LTA website from 9/3/17.
